School of Journalism and Communication
at the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK)

2022 CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

PLEASE CIRCULATE WIDELY

Welcome to the SPRG FCF Scholarship!

In partnership with the Future Communicators Foundation (FCF), the Strategic Public Relations Group (SPRG) provides one annual scholarship at $2500 USD (HK$20,000) for senior undergraduates (3rd year and above) in the School of Journalism and Communication at the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK). Scholarships are focused around a yearly theme addressing issues in sustainability, social justice, and public health. Students are required to make a mock brief addressing the yearly theme using limited and/or low-cost resources.

2022 Theme. What makes for a sustainable city, and how would you communicate ideas around the “sustainable city” to its citizens? Dream big, but think practical. What would the “sustainable city” look like, in respect to environment, health, and social justice? How might innovative and low-cost resources be used to communicate innovative ideas around the sustainable city?

Eligibility. Senior undergraduate students (third year and above) enrolled in the School of Journalism and Communications at The Chinese University of Hong Kong. Groups are eligible to submit with a maximum of three (3) members. Each team member is required to state, in brief, the nature of their contribution. The bursary remains the same amount for a group as for an individual.

Scholarship Aims. The aim of the SPRG Future Communicators Foundation (FCF) Scholarship is to encourage communications students to think creatively about challenging ideas, while also considering how to circulate these ideas using low-cost/limited means. We look to innovation with few resources that embrace unique approaches. We want students to consider how to communicate important issues within their community — without a marketing budget.
